

Animals in Disaster

A Custom Training for MRC Volunteers and CERT Leadership

Presenter Jo Becker has a passion for helping animals to survive, thrive and recover from an emergency. She empowers human participants to consider preparation for the unexpected and ways to better communicate and help animals during good times and bad.

- Prepare for disasters focused on animals
- Animal body language
- Maintain safety and minimize attack
- In-the-field care
- Facilitated introduction of MRC and CERT volunteers

Free class for Clackamas County MRC volunteers and Clackamas County CERT Leadership.
